

INTERNATIONAL FINALS

3:00 p.m.	Arrival of teams Technology checks and team photos
4:00 – 4:15 p.m.	Participant welcome
4:15 – 5:45 p.m.*	Presentation and jury questioning 15 min. presentation and 10 min. jury questioning
5:45 – 6:00 p.m.*	Break
6:00 – 7:00 p.m.*	Presentation and jury questioning 15 min. presentation and 10 min. jury questioning
7:00 – 7:30 p.m.*	Break Snack and judges' deliberations
7:30 – 8:00 p.m.*	Awards ceremony Feedback from judges and announcement of the winning team

*ATTENTION: Different times depending on the number of participating teams.
Please note the respective program booklet. This can be viewed after registration.

Program

SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Boston Consulting Group (BCG) is a global management consulting firm and the world's leading advisor on business strategy. Founded in 1963 by Bruce D. Henderson, BCG now has more than 100 offices in over 50 countries. In addition to their work for clients, BCG consultants also support selected humanitarian organizations on a pro bono basis, such as Save the Children and the World Food Programme of the United Nations. BCG currently works with over 200 partner organizations on 350 social impact projects around the globe. In Germany, the firm is particularly active in the education and support of youths and young adults.

BUSINESS@SCHOOL

Since 1998 business@school is an educational initiative of the international management consulting firm Boston Consulting Group (BCG). The goal is to give students practical business knowledge and key qualifications for their future professional life, as well as awaken their entrepreneurial spirit. Each year, around 1,000 senior high school students at around 70 schools in Germany, Austria, Italy, Great Britain, Albania, and Switzerland participate in business@school. They are supported by their teachers and around 450 coaches from over 20 partner companies and BCG. To date, approximately 30,000 students have participated in business@school.

THE BUSINESS@SCHOOL-NETWORK

We would like to thank our supporters for their commitment to business@school:

